

GRAND JURY INDICTS WARDER

A Former Gracey Marshal Charged With Being in Raid Dec. 7.

AFTER THE TRUST ALSO

Several Other Indictments
For Minor Offenses Not Made Public.

The grand jury adjourned Thursday afternoon after returning fourteen additional indictments, one of them for night riding. This was against Gano M. Warder, former marshal of Gracey, who was promptly arrested and his bond fixed at $1,000, which he did not give and spent the night in jail. He is charged with complicity in the raid on Hopkinsville. Evidence connecting him with other raids is said to be at hand, but the witnesses could not be gotten before the grand jury.

The grand jury did not return indictments against George Barnes, Omer Barnes, Jim Jones, Cap Jones, Y. G. Gibson and J. B. Henderson, who were arrested on warrants sworn out before the County Court several days ago charging them with being night riders.

The chief witness against them is not now in Kentucky and the grand jury did not investigate their cases. The men's bonds have expired and they are not now under bond, but any future grand jury may take up the investigation.

The International Harvester Company was indicted on the charge of being a combination of manufacturing concerns for the purpose of regulating, fixing and controlling prices on harvesting machines. The names of several prominent citizens, both farmers and dealers in machines, are given in the indictment as witnesses. This is the first indictment yet secured in this county against this company.

The town of Fairview was indicted on the charge of maintaining a nuisance, it being alleged that for two years past a mudhole had been allowed to remain in the street.

The other indictments were not made public.

Only about thirty-five indictments were returned in sixteen days.

Gano Warder gave bond yesterday at 11 o'clock, with W. R. Hammond and J. G. Hord as his bondsmen.

Harrison Gowans, charged with stealing some whisky from an L. & N. freight car, was given one year in the penitentiary.

Rush McReynolds, manslaughterer, reduced to assault and battery and defendant was fined $50 on a plea of guilty.

T. D. Bell vs. Western Union Telegraph Company, verdict for plaintiff for $10.

RAILROAD LINE

Changes Hands and Reorganization is Effected.

The Kentucky Midland railroad, from Central City to Madisonville, a distance of twenty-six miles, has passed into new hands. Articles of incorporation of the new company, which retains the old name, were filed Wednesday with the Railroad Commission at Frankfort. The main office of the company will be in Central City, but branch offices will be established in Paducah and Chicago. The capital stock is $10,000. The road will be operated as a coal-carrying line mainly, although it will do a passenger business.

RIFLE RANGES.

Soldier Boys Will Take Aim at Three Places.

Frankfort, Ky., June 18.—The rifle range at Kennebec Station, near Frankfort, is being put in condition for use, and tents and other equipment for the use of the men have been put up. The first troops which will use the range will be the First Kentucky Regiment. These men will reach here about Thursday, and will begin shooting that day. The other troops will follow the First Kentucky. The range near Louisville is being put in condition, and when it is ready the First Regiment will use that range instead of coming to Frankfort. It costs about $6,000 and requires a good deal of time to get a range in condition for use, and therefore it will be several days before the range in Louisville is ready.

The range at Earlinton will be used by the Third Regiment, which is in Western Kentucky. This has been donated by J. B. Atkinson, and will serve admirably. Gen. Johnston thinks. The State encampments this year will number three, and will be held at the regimental rifle ranges, as Gen. Johnston says he wants all the men to know how to shoot and at least see some other men shoot, if they do not want to shoot themselves. Gen. Johnston says that a soldier who cannot shoot is of no earthly use, and therefore he is going to have the men learn how to handle the guns which they carry while on active service.

WOODROW WILSON

Mrs. Bryan's Choice for Vice President.

Washington, June 18.—Mrs. William Jennings Bryan has confided to her husband that her choice for the vice presidential nomination on the Democratic ticket is Woodrow Wilson, president of the Princeton university. Mr. Bryan is said to agree with his wife and to have declared privately that he would like nothing better than to have the distinguished pedagogue for a running mate.

This information leaked out from one who got it from a member of the Bryan family direct. According to this authority, the original choice of Mr. Bryan was Brand Whitlock, mayor of Toledo.

Mrs. Bryan believes as a vote getter among the intellectuals Wilson would prove a wonder. President Wilson has not been sounded on the subject, but Mr. Bryan believes he would accept the nomination.

CERULEAN FIRE.

Jack Davis Loses His Barn at Night.

Mr. Jack Davis, who lives about three miles north of Cerulean, lost a tobacco barn by fire last Thursday night. He was away from home and none of the other members of his family knew of the fire until they arose next morning.

Mr. and Mrs. B. F. Goodwin lost their four months old baby last Saturday. It died of whooping cough. Its remains were carried Sunday to Crider, Ky., and interred.

Oscar Goodwin and Robt. F. Goodwin, of Herrin, Ill., are here on a visit to relatives. This is Robert F. Goodwin's first visit to Trigg county for nearly five years.—Cadiz Record.

Fair Meeting.

The adjourned meeting looking to the organization of the Fair Association will be held at the court house Monday night.

Postponed.

The council meeting for last night was postponed until Monday night.

MANY MORE INDICTED.

On Evidence Given By Otis
Blick, a Confessed Raider.

Benton, Ky., June 18.—The case against Burnett Phelps, charged with night riding, was resumed. Otis Black, the confessed night rider, was the first witness on the stand, and his cross-examination continued.

The defendant was the first witness for the defense. He testified that he was not in the raid at Birmingham and was at home and introduced several witnesses that saw him and talked with him that night.

The grand jury came in and returned indictments against Hugh Rogers, Irvin Rogers, John Hill, Henry Towns, Thuse Duncan, Geo. Duncan, Kenny Bloodworth, Kenny Hayden, John Bridges, Amos Fuls, Dave Payne, John Fox, Ed Fox, Johnson Lady, John Whalen, Stone Wilson, Dock Culp, Cleve Kelly, John Prescott, Henry Eddington, Jack Wells, Elvin Hill, Willard Towns, Ted Murray, Charles Pigrun, Billy Hill, Charles Collins, Jodie Lee, Courtney Champion, Jesse Kelly, Zed Bloodworth, Luther Wells, Thomas Duncan, Nady Brown, Ernest Fox, Henry Towns, Alfred Fox, of Lyon county; Robert Heath, John Heath, Jack Heath, Joe Washburn, John Chambers, Charles Phelps, John Ryan, Dan Schroeder, Bud Schroeder, Sid Allison, Willie Goheen, Marvin Watkins, John Jackson, Pete Prince, Tom Chiles, Bucy Wyatt, T. B. McFarland, Claude Jones, Clarence Petway, Claude Culp, Jack Allen, John Hill. They are charged with participating in the Birmingham raid on March 9, 1908.

Their indictment was procured upon the evidence of Otis Blick, who is now guarded by the soldiers and is a member of the militia having joined since his confession. Bail for each of the defendants was fixed at $500. They will be arrested at once as many of them are attending court as witnesses for the defense.

FATE IS WITH JURY.

Trial of Alleged Night Rider at Benton, Near End.

Benton, Ky., June 18.—Arguments were completed today at noon in the trial of Burnett Phelps, an alleged night rider. The Hon. Chas. K. Wheeler, for the defense, made a splendid appeal, while Commonwealth's Attorney John C. Lovett delivered one of the strongest speeches ever heard in the denunciation of lawlessness. Judge Reed gave the case to the jury, but it is the belief it will be a hung jury.

Nine of the sixty-seven men indicted yesterday by the grand jury were arrested this morning by Sheriff Eley. All of the men are from Lyon county and gave bond for $750 each. Four more soldiers arrived last night.

$1,000 REWARD

Tennessee Officers Seek Arrest of Assassins of Reuf Hunter.

Nashville, Tenn., June 17.—Gov. Patterson to day offered a reward of $1,000 for the arrest and conviction of the person or persons who assassinated Reuf Hunter, of Montgomery county, on the night of June 6. The application for reward was made by C. W. Tyler, Judge of the Criminal Court of Montgomery county, and W. M. Brandon, Attorney General of the Ninth Circuit.

Hunter had been prominently identified with the Planters' Protective Association since its organization. On the night of June 6 a party of men supposed to entertain some personal hatred for Hunter called him to the door of his home and shot him.

VAGRANT NOTICE.

All vagrants, loafers, and idlers are hereby warned that the ordinances against vagrancy and loitering in the city of Hopkinsville will be vigorously enforced.

The farmers are begging for help in the harvest fields and everybody who wants work can get it.

All persons are requested to report to the police the names of idlers who are offered work and refuse it. CHAS. M. MEACHAM, Mayor.

SHORT OF CASH

Unable to Settle and Special Session of Legislature May Be Necessary.

Treasurer Farley Says Every Effort Will Be Made To Avoid This Step.

Frankfort, Ky., June 19.—With the treasury probably lower in funds than ever before, except in 1896, it may be necessary to call an extra session of the legislature to provide money with which to run the departments of the State government. Capt. Ed Farley, State Treasurer, in a letter which he wrote to the jailer of Mason county on Wednesday, says that every effort is being made to avoid the necessity for an extra session. In case an extra session is called it would be called for the same purpose as was the extra session of 1896, when interest-bearing warrants were authorized. This is a way to meet the difficulties which are presented, and it may be that Gov. Willson will call the extra session, probably in the winter.

ENGLISH MARKET

May Be Open To the Association Tobacco.

R. C. West has just finished re-handling two car loads of association tobacco bought for English dealers and unpacked and redried as an experiment to suit the trade that demands its own handling. Aside from the increased expense of trying to make prized tobacco answer for the loose trade, Mr. West thinks he has succeeded in putting it up to suit his dealers. The report from Liverpool will be awaited with interest. If the English house can use the re-handled tobacco, there may be a new market for the tobacco that is not in good condition in the storage houses if it is decided to re-grade it and lower the price.

Tallest Elk.

Paducah, Ky., June 17.—Friends of John Porteous, formerly of this city, have received the news that he has been promoted to the position of city passenger agent of the Colorado and Southern railway at Denver. Mr. Porteous left here a few years ago on account of his health. He is nearly seven feet high and slender. At a meeting of the Elks at Denver a few years ago he was awarded a prize for being the tallest Elk in the United States. He has a brother here over six feet tall.
